

ON THE DEATH OF MCKINLEY.

Strikingly Beautiful Poem by Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

In the midst of hundreds of poems relating to President McKinley's death appearing in the press of the country, the following entitled "Death Has Crowned Him as a Martyr," written for the New York Journal by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, is conspicuous for its beauty and strength:

In the midst of sunny waters, lo! the mighty Ship of State
Staggers, bruised and torn and wounded by a derelict of fate.
One that drifted from its moorings, in the anchorage of hate.

On the deck our noble Pilot, in the glory of his prime,
Lies in woe impelling silence, dead before his time.
Victim of a mind self-centered, a godless fool of crime.

One of earth's dissension-breeders, one of Hate's unreasoning tools,
In the annals of the ages, when the world's hot anger cools,
He who sought for crime's distinction shall be known as Chief of Fools.

In the annals of the ages, he who had no thought of fame
Keeping on the path of duty, caring not for praise or blame,
Close beside the deathless Lincoln, writ in light, will shine his name.

Youth proclaimed him as a hero; Time, a statesman, love, a man,
Death has crowned him a martyr, so from goal to goal he ran,
Knowing all the sum of glory that a human life may span.

He was chosen by the people; not an accident of birth
Made him ruler of a nation, but his own intrinsic worth,
Fools may govern over kingdoms—not republics of the earth.

He raised the lover's standard, by his loyalty and faith,
He has shown how virile manhood may keep free from scandal's breath,
He has gazed, with trust unshaken, in the awful eyes of death.

In the mighty march of progress he has sought to do his best,
Let his enemies be silent, as we lay him down to rest,
And may God assuage the anguish of one suffering woman's breast.

President McKinley died believing that tariff walls of exclusion were not the best for a growing and prosperous country or for any country, but that reciprocal treaties are best for all the world, and that is but another name for freer and larger trade.

H. C. Watkins, sexton of the Methodist church, Springfield, Pa., says: "My wife has been very bad with kidney trouble and tried several doctors without benefit. Prof. J. H. Brinson, who has accepted the position of principal of the commercial department of the East Florida Seminary at Gainesville, was in Ocala Wednesday. In the selection of Professor Brinson for this position the faculty of that institution made no mistake, as he is one of the foremost instructors in Florida. His services in educational circles in this county will be greatly missed. Success to him.

You may bridle the appetite, but you can not bribe the liver to do its work well. You must be honest with it, help it along a little now and then with a dose of Herbine, the best liver regulator. Price 50 cents. For sale by Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

We regret exceedingly that the editorial page of the last issue of the Tropical Sun—the page that is devoted so conspicuously to the Ocala Banner—was so bedragged with ink that it was almost impossible for us or any one else to read it. We do not know whether it was by accident or design, but whether the one or the other, it is an unfair advantage to take. If we are to be struck we don't want to be struck from behind an ink fountain. If we do not feel we want to at least see the blow.

Hatchchubbee, Ala., June 30, 1875. Dr. C. J. Moffett—Dear Sir: I can assure you that your Teethina (Teethina Powders) is indispensable to us, and in no single instance has it ever proved a failure. We have tried soothing medicines, and everything known to us and "old women," and your Teethina Powders are pre-eminently a success and blessing to mothers and children.

Yours truly, etc.

Ex-Senator Samuel Pasco, wife, daughter and son are at home again in Monticello, awaiting the arrival of the corpse of Lieut. William D. Pasco, a son of the ex-senator who was killed several months ago in the Philippine Islands in a battle with the natives there. The body has reached San Francisco, en route to Florida. The state of Florida mourns the death of this gallant young officer, and all citizens naturally sympathize with the bereaved.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Take care of the stomach and the health will take care of itself. If people only realized the soundness of that statement the majority might live to a good old age like Moses, "the eye undimmed, the natural force unabated." It is in the stomach that the blood is made. It is from the stomach that nourishment is dispensed to nerve and muscle. If the stomach is "weak" it can't do its whole work for each part of the body. If it is diseased the disease will taint the nourishment which is distributed, and so spread disease throughout the body. It was the realization of the importance of the stomach as the very center of health and the common source of disease, which led Dr. Pierce to prepare his "Golden Medical Discovery." Diseases which originate in the stomach must be cured through the stomach. The soundness of this theory is proved every day by cures of diseased organs, heart, liver, lungs, blood—by use of the "Discovery" which is solely and singly a medicine for the blood and organs of digestion and nutrition. It is a temperance medicine containing no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant.

SCOTT—BRAZELTON.

The Union of Two Prominent People in this City this Week.

Mr. James R. Scott, of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Lillie Anderson Brazelton were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the reception parlor of Hotel Dalton last Thursday night by Rev. W. L. Lingle in the presence of a large party of friends and relatives.

The union was the notable consummation of a romance born when Mr. Scott and his lovely bride were schoolmates here, and both were the recipients of hearty congratulations.

Mesdames W. C. Martin, W. N. Harben and C. R. Evans received the lady guests while Col. Martin, Mr. Harben and Mr. Evans received the gentlemen. The parlors were beautifully and appropriately decorated with bamboo, cut flowers and potted ferns, all of which were beautifully blended by deft hands under the supervision of Mrs. M. E. Judd. Candles in huge silver candelabras shed their soft lustre over the whole and made the scene a miniature arcadia. Mrs. W. C. Martin played the wedding march in a low, sweet manner during the impressive ceremony. Mr. Lingle offered a beautiful prayer at the close of which was the signal for congratulations that were cordially extended, and afterwards the guests partook of a delightful refreshment menu. Mr. Will S. McCarty and Col. B. Z. Herndon attended the happy couple. The bride wore an exquisite imported dark blue foulard, the effect of which was heightened by a quantity of rich lace. She wore lovely pearl ornaments.

Mr. Scott is a former citizen of this city and the Ocala Banner joins with his old friends in hearty congratulations in the new and happy life that has overtaken him.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of Suffering.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Holloway, of French Camp, Miss. I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

Back to the Farm.

Mr. Joe Davis, who formerly was proprietor of a stall in the Ocala market, believes that he sees more money and a freer and more independent life growing meats and vegetables than in retailing them second hand.

Mr. Davis has bought from Sheriff Nugent a plantation near Summerfield and believes that he has not only picked up a bargain but has come into a fortune.

Among other field crops he has ninety acres in velvet beans and has already an order for a thousand barrels at a dollar a barrel.

Mr. Davis' object is to fatten bees and hogs for market and in addition to velvet beans is growing cassava, turnips, potatoes, peanuts and other cheap fattening foodstuffs.

Besides his fields of corn, cotton, sugar cane and articles above enumerated, he has a fifteen acre orchard of pecans which he will enlarge.

Joe is setting his pegs to be prosperous and independent in his old age.

The Florida farmer, in our judgment, if he mingles his brains with his hands, is bound to come out on top.

Thousands Sent Into Exile.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. Don't be an exile when Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption will cure you at home. It's the most infallible medicine for coughs, colds, and all throat and lung diseases on earth. The first dose brings relief. Astounding cures result from persistent use. Trial bottles free a Garrett & Gerig's. Price 50c and $1.00 Every bottle guaranteed.

A Case that May Become Famous.

Mr. Otis T. Green has returned from Seabreeze where with his family he has been spending the summer. Mr. Green is counsel for Colonel and Mrs. Post and Chas. F. Bergmann, mental scientists, who were recently arrested by the United States postal authorities to show cause why they should not be denied the use of the United States mails.

The case promises to become one of national importance.

Martel Mourns—Other Matters.

The sad intelligence of the death of President McKinley reached Martel Saturday morning, whereupon our efficient postmaster, John H. Brooks, who is a life-long democrat, as an emblem of the great sorrow of all our people, draped the postoffice in mourning, which will remain for thirty days.

Most of our farmers are through harvesting their corn, and have enough, and to spare. Cotton is being picked, but has been cut short 50 per cent by excessive rains. Harvesting pinders is now the order of the day.

The Ocala and Cotton Plant macadamized road has been completed six miles from Ocala, under the skilful management of Allen Rodgers, overseer, and H. W. Long, superintendent in charge. It is one of the most substantial roads of the state, and is a credit to our progressive people.

From the Ocala Evening Star of April 1st, 1901.

"We are indebted to Mr. George Close for the finest cabbage and lettuce we have ever seen grown in Florida. Mr. Close is a man of fine judgment, and one of the most successful trucker in the state and he is a generous and large hearted as he is prosperous."

Mr. Close bought his seed from the old reliable seedsman J. B. Sutton, who handles only the best seeds to be had especially adapted to Florida and makes a specialty of the finest strains of cabbage, egg plant, lettuce, onion and tomato seed. See display advertisement in another column. 7-12tf

Special Correspondence Ocala Banner.

The memorial service held at the Methodist church on Sunday for our president was conducted in a most expressive manner by Rev. H. A. Hodges, who was at his best. The church was artistically draped in black bunting with wreaths of English ivy. America and Nearer My God to Thee were the hymns used.

Mr. T. F. Harrison has returned from his New York trip.

Denver Hodges and Sister Bison have entered school at McIntosh.

Mrs. Ruth Summers, of Green Cove Springs, is visiting her parents.

Dr. R. F. Godard is in Gainesville to-day.

Mr. Miller, of DeLand, is here with hands, arranging to move the Bishop and Hoyt's dredge boat to that place. Stewart Harris left Monday for the Asheville school for boys.

Consumption Threatened.

C. Unger, 212 Maple St., Campaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since." "I had bronchitis for twenty years," said Mrs. Minerva Smith, of Canville, Ill., "and never got relief until I used Foley's Honey and Tar which is sure for throat and lung diseases." Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

A Curious Calf.

Mr. J. A. Spicer has on exhibition in this city a wonderful freak of nature in the shape of a stuffed calf. The animal lived only a few hours after birth and the taxidermist has done his work well. The calf has two perfectly formed heads, two necks, two breasts, two tails, seven legs and eight feet.

Mr. Hardy Rainer, of Salt Springs, is the factotum in exhibiting this wonderful curiosity.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. Phillip Shafer died yesterday morning after a lingering illness which lasted over a period of twelve months.

The deceased was thirty years of age and had been married for five years. She leaves a loving husband and many friends and relatives to mourn her loss. The remains were interred at Spring Park.

Impaired Digestion

May not be all that is meant by dyspepsia now, but it will be if neglected.

The uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, sourness of the stomach, and disagreeable belching may not be very bad now, but they will be if the stomach is suffered to grow weaker.

Dyspepsia is such a miserable disease that the tendency to it should be given early attention. This is completely overcome by which strengthens the whole digestive system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

State Fair Notes.

There are some handsome Florida bred horses on the road to the fair. They will surprise you.

Look out for the Florida zeos. Two of them will be at the fair. We can make our own show in Florida as well as a fair.

The management wants an old-time corn shucking. Songs and dances, all complete. It would be a show all right.

This is the colored man's opportunity. If he is farming right now is his time to show it. Bring it to the fair and show his handiwork.

Before U. S. Commissioner.

Jesse Jeffers was up before United States Commissioner D. S. Williams last Tuesday for breaking into and robbing the post-office at Sparr on the 23rd, of August last. He was held to appear at the January term of the United States circuit court which will convene in this city. He stole fifteen dollars, ten dollars of which were in coppers, and the free manner in which he tried to get rid of same led to his detection.

Mr. Luffman is postmaster at Sparr and is the principal witness in the case.
